My Jesus, kind, was torn by nails
By nails of cruel men
And to His cross, as grace prevailed
God pinned my wretched sin

My Jesus, meek, was scorned by men
By men in blasphemy

My Jesus, pure, was crushed by God
By God in judgment just
The Father grieved, yet turned His rod
On Christ, made sin for us

That God should die for men
With joyful grief I lift my praise
Abhorring all my sin
